The diagram shows a diamond-shaped frame labeled "D21". It is composed of four corner brackets, each labeled with a circled "9". Each bracket is shown with a downward-pointing arrow, indicating it is to be attached to a surface. The frame is shown in a perspective view, with the bottom edge labeled "x2", indicating that the bottom edge components are to be duplicated. A small inset in the bottom left corner shows a close-up of the bracket's internal structure.
